

Graduate Research Awards for Disarmament, Arms Control and Non-Proliferation 2007–2008

The Simons Foundation and the International Security Research and Outreach Programme of Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada are pleased to announce those selected to receive a 2007–08 Graduate Research Award for Disarmament, Arms Control and Non-Proliferation.

Please be advised that following careful review, and based on the needs and objectives of the Graduate Research Award (GRA) Programme to support research related to disarmament, arms control and non-proliferation, the 2007–08 Graduate Research Award competition has resulted in the awarding of four (4) Doctoral Research Awards and two (2) Master's Research Awards.

$5,000 Doctoral Awards

Adam Bower (University of British Columbia)
Michael Cohen (University of British Columbia)
Geert De Cock (University of Alberta)
Ritu Mathur (York University)

$2,500 Master's Awards

Megan Kinsella (University of Ottawa/Carleton University)
Brett Thompson (University of Toronto)

The primary objective of the Graduate Research Awards is to enhance Canadian graduate level scholarship on disarmament, arms control and non-proliferation issues.

Awards are offered by The Simons Foundation and the International Security Research and Outreach Programme (ISROP) of Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada (DFAIT).

Click here for more information on the 2010–2011 Graduate Research Awards for Disarmament, Arms Control and Non-Proliferation.